Summary of reasons for decision:

The publication is a highly sexualised image of a teenage boy. It is deemed to be objectionable under s3(2)(a) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 (FVPC Act) because it promotes and supports the exploitation of young persons for sexual purposes. The image is clearly intended to arouse those with a sexual interest in teenage boys. The availability of such material encourages the creation or reinforcement of this sexual interest by presenting young persons as appropriate and available subjects for adult sexual fantasy and desire. The objectionable classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention to ban material that falls under s3(2) of the FVPC Act and reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from sexual exploitation.
